To Be Continued (New!)

Catch 22

Close your eyes real tight
Underneath the city lights
And you can hear the noise
Below your roomTake a real deep breath
Get those feelings off your chest
Work it out and wake up
In each others armsUnderneath, it's never over
(Looking back over my shoulder)
Looking back over my shoulder
(Underneath, it's never over)
We always said that we would meet again
When we were ten years olderClose your eyes real tight
Underneath the city lights
You can hear the noise
Below your roomTake a real deep breath
Get those feelings off your chest
Work it out and wake up
In each others armsUnderneath, it's never over
(Looking back over my shoulder)
Looking back over my shoulder
(Underneath, it's never over)
We always said that we would meet again
When we were ten years older
