

Just A Fool (Ft. Blake Shelton)

Christina Aguilera

Another shot of whiskey please bartender
Keep it coming til I don't remember at all
How bad it hurts when you're gone (na na na) Turn the music up a little bit louder
Just gotta get past the midnight hour
Maybe tomorrow it won't
Be this hard
Who am I kidding
I know what I'm missing I had my heart set on you
But nothing else hurts like you do
Who knew that love was so cruel
(Yeah yeah yeah)
And I
Waited and waited so long
For someone who'd never come home
It's my fault to think you'll be true (yeah yeah)
I'm just a fool
(Yeah) I said that I don't care
I'd walk away whatever
And I tell myself we were bad together (uh huh)
But that's just me trying to move on
With out you But who am I kidding
I know what I'm missing Hey, I had my heart set on you
But nothing else hurts like you do
Who know that love was so cruel
(Yeah yeah yeah)
And I
Waited and waited so long
For someone who'd never come home
It's my fault to think you'll be true (yeah yeah)
I'm just a fool For holding on to something that
Is never ever gonna come back
I can't accept that it's lost I should have let it go
Held my tongue
Can't fight the motion
Cause now everything's so wrong
Wrong, wrong I'm just a fool
A fool for you
I'm just a fool Hey, I had my heart set on you
And nothing else hurts like you do

Who knew that love was so cruel
(Yeah yeah yeah)
And I
Waited and waited so long
For someone who'd never come home
It's my fault to think you'll be true (yeah yeah)
I'm just a fool
I'm just a fool
I'm just a fool It's my fault to think you'll be true
(Yeah yeah yeah)
I'm just a fool
