Charon

[Music: Hast & Sipilä & CHARON Lyrics: Hautamäki] Internal night - I see your stars

A blackened light - eternal scars

Extinguished sky - storm arise Aeon of Ayn Swirling winds greeds my end

Time no more, cyclic vortex

Around us So it has always been

The undone and deceased never was and never

The WILL and the FAITH So I have seen the gate is closed

The region of SOUL for no one to know

Behead the minions let the liquid life flow For what is a salvation for the wicked

Samhains dew the blood of a slain god

SPRING from the fountain of knowledge Coronation when the moon is full with blood

Ordainer from ebon crown

Wields the sceptre of the proud
