

That Did It

Tedeschi Trucks Band

When we first met, baby
You said it was me and you
But I found out later
That was others too But I didn't quit you, baby
I hung on like a vine
But when you say your love for me
Was all in my mind Oh, that did it, baby
Lord, that did it, baby
Well, ain't no need in coming back
That's the end and that's that
Oh, you did it, baby I work six days a week
In the rich folk's yard
And anybody can tell you, baby
That kinda work is real hard You know I didn't mind
Taking care of you
But I saw your other man
Wearing my brand new shoes Oh, Lord, that did it, baby
Oh, that did it, baby
Well, there ain't no coming back
That's the end and that's that
Oh, you did it, baby There's one thing I wanna say You said we'd get married
In the early spring
I passed a pawn shop today
I peeked in and saw my ring You say you needed the money
To pay your rent
But I saw you sitting at the bar
Spending your last red cent Oh, that did it, baby
Oh, that did it, baby
Well, I know you think you're slick
But you played your last trick
Oh, you did it, baby Lord, you did it, baby
It's all, it's all over now, baby
I said you played your last trick now, baby
Lord, it's all over
