Father

Lust & Lies

Say you're a good man
But you can't deny
You've gotta problem
It's of the sickest type
I know it's easy for you to move around
So high up when you're coming down

Have no shame
Take no blame
What's the name
Who are you
Really workin' for

I've seen my share of destruction
Always ending the same
When power leads to corruption
It, can't be tamed

I see the damage you've done, Father
I'm not alone in my sight
You wash the blood from your hands, in the fire
Never knowing wrong from right

I'm in the front row
Watchin' you play the part
Become a new man, soon as the music starts
See what they don't know, everyone in the crowd
Why you're bad for boys in town

I don't know how you can be
So blind that you just fail to see
But I'll tell ya' your walls are closing in

I've seen my share of destruction
Always ending the same
When power leads to corruption
It's time to take it away

I see the damage you've done, Father

I'm not alone in my sight
You wash the blood from your hands, in the fire
Never knowing wrong from right

I see the damage you've done, Father
I'm not alone in my sight
You wash the blood from your hands, in the fire
Never knowing wrong from right

I see the damage you've done, Father
I'm not alone in my sight
You wash the blood from your hands, Father
Never knowing wrong from right
Never knowing wrong from right
