Heaven

Forever JONES

ooo every time i think about it HEAVEN I'm overjoyed and overwhelmed doo doo see the sound i hear is more than merely human praise i know it shakes the gates of hellchorus:
i hear angles singing majestic are you lord streams of glory flowing from your throne always and forever you reign Holy, Holy, HolyA place where sadness is forbidden and there are only tears of joy and all rocky roads are smoothed away bada doo doo celestial beings are rejoicing and singing freedom songs along with those who've been redeemedchorus:
i hear angles singing majestic are you lord
Holy, Holy, Holyoh i can see it now the joy and laughter the thought of your presences and the here and ever after oh i said that i can see it now smiling faces everywhere singing holy, holy, holyangles singing majestic are you lord streams of glory flowing from your throne
Holy, Holy, Holy
oh my god is able, able, able able, able, able you are righteous, righteous, righteous x2 you are holy holy holy
