

Kisses Lose Their Charm

Porcelain Black

I've been waiting
For something
To feel real
And I thought
I found it with you
I thought it was true
I lay in my home (I love in your home)
And baby you know that (And you're willing you're loving)
I don't see when you're going away (I don't see when you're loving away)
I don't see when you're waiting awake (I don't see when you're going away) Cause kisses lose their charm
And we end up alone
Kisses lose their charm
You are the thorn on my rose
Cause we are burning down
But keep coming back for more
We are burning down
Is this what you had in store
We are burning down
But keep coming back for more
We are burning down
Is this what you had in store
Waiting for when
I wound it with you (found it with you)
I thought it was true
I laid in my home (I love in your home)
And baby you know that (And you're willing you're loving)
I don't see when you're going away (I don't see when you're loving away)
I don't see when you're waiting awake (I don't see when you're going away) Cause kisses lose their charm
And we end up alone
Kisses lose their charm
You are the thorn on my rose
Cause we are burning down
But keep coming back for more
We are burning down
Is this what you had in store
We are burning down
But keep coming back for more
We are burning down
Is this what you had in store
