Will You Whisper

Sandra

(Yasser - Alexandria)Yes I believe in you
As you believe in me
So will you whisper
Don't give up
To me once againWe hide so many fears
We cry so many tears
So will you whisper
Don't give up
To me once againThere was a time
Soft and tender
I could feel the earth below
When I slowly turned
I found myself aloneTake me by your hand
I know you'll understand
So will you whisper
Don't give up
To me once againYes I'm afraid of Life
I know it takes some time
so will whisper
Open up your heart
Rise And ShineI wanna know
Can you tell me
Why we have to be so cruel
Do you know how deep it hurts
When love is leavin youWhy don't you say
You don't want me
You don't need me in your life
Do you know how deep it hurts
To be aloneIt's deep inside of you
And deep inside of me
So will you whisper
Don't give up
To me once againThe voice inside my dreams
Is talking to the wind
I hear you whisper
Open up your heart
Rise and shineThere was a time
Soft and tender
I could feel the earth below

Do you know how deep it hurts
When love is leaving youI wanna know...
Can you tell me...I wanna know
Can you tell me
Is there never a forever thing
Don't you know it hurts
To be alone
