

Sometimes

Ash

Can't sleep in the city, you're far away
Cigarettes keep you skinny and your mind off the rain
Oh, sometimes, sometimes, oh, sometimes, sometimes Feelin's are distant and I know guilt by name
It was the hardest thing, watchin' you slip away
Oh, sometimes, sometimes, oh, sometimes, sometimes Sometimes it happens, feelin's die
Whole years are lost in the blink of an eye
We once had it all but it gets conspired
Oh, sometimes Good morning, sweet thing, you're safe in my hand
I am no saint but I understand
Oh, sometimes, sometimes, oh, sometimes, sometimes Sometimes it happens, feelin's die
Whole years are lost in the blink of an eye
We once had it all but it gets conspired
Oh, sometimes Now that it's over, it is through
It gets me everytime I think of you
Sometimes it happens, feelin's die
Oh, sometimes I miss your warm skin beside me at night
I miss your flesh in the dawn light
Oh, sometimes, sometimes, oh, sometimes, sometimes Sometimes it happens, feelin's die
Whole years are lost in the blink of an eye
We once had it all but it gets conspired
Oh, sometimes Saturn's decline in my star sign
Seasonal adjustments, stars realign
Sometimes it happens, feelin's die
Oh, sometimes, sometimes
