

Burning in Hell (Live '85)

Possessed

Music: MT Lyrics: JB

Death has beckoned you to hell

You can't escape my evil spell

Past the gates, evil fate

Into the depths cast to burn unseen terror life of doom tragic, black magic

Sorrow in your afterlife

victim of your sins tonight

my grasp, will last

Nightmares of eternity

Forgotten souls and tyranny

You lived now die

No life no death no future here

Infinite horror screams of fear

You flesh, decayed

Run and hide there's no relief

Pounding hearts is full of grief screams, dreams

No one hears you scream at night demons own your soul with might illusions, delusions

Roasted in the flames of hell

Beware the cast the evil spell burning, yearning

Dreams become reality

You can't outlive infinity

Burning in hell

Solo : MT Solo : LL

Prowling through the night

like a bad dream

stalking out your prey

Hear the victims scream

Driven by a vision

Ruling your domain

Lurking in the shadows

Driving you insane

Know that you're not crazy

Nothing you remember

Mind is so blank
And Your thoughts become a hinder Know there's something evil
Hiding in your mind
Waiting for that moment
To sneak up from behind
