I Need Your Body (Alt. Version)

Brooke Bentham

I saw you last night, I wasnt sober you saw me last night, you were never sober into the night we go once more, we screaminI carry on tell me about the others and Ill carry the weightbut do not leave me alone I never leave you alone please never leave me alone (dont you leave me alone)the streets are red mostly when you say goodnight still awake keeping me up still your keeping me up still I love it when you keep me your legs over my thighs think twice
I think I need you
I think I need you to make my body workI always leave knowing this will never take knowing this will never take I dance through city nights with my head turned around its happenin again, its always happenin againI see you hit the ground And run from me from mebut I need you, I need you to make my body workthe streets are red mostly when you say goodnight still awake keeping me up still
your keeping me up still
I love it when you keep me
I love it when you put your legs over my thighs think twice, I think I need you I need you to make my body workI never wanna leave you alone please dont leave me alone ill never leave you alone
