

Rapture Of The Deep

Deep Purple

I told you once about a place
That I had accidentally stumbled upon
Can you imagine how it feels to find somewhere
That you can do no wrong
But it's alright you're safe in my hands I'll meet you in the sky tonight
And we will trace some undiscovered stars
We'll go beyond the universe beyond all understanding,
Hey, it's not that far
But it's alright I feel safe in your hands I can't stand living this way
Getting by from day to day
I'm drinking from your loving cup
I told you things were looking cup
Oh oh oh so good
Oh it feels so good We're all the same but then again
We're all quite different in our own peculiar ways
We've come so far and now we're going through another phase
But it's alright
We made it so far I can't stand living this way
Getting by from day to day
I'm drinking from your loving cup
Told you things were looking cup As we all know it's hard to breathe
When something spiritual has taken place
We don't know why we don't know how
We've been transformed into a state of grace
But it's alright
We walk in our sleep
Yes it's alright
This is rapture of the deep
