Drop Your Head

Creeper Lagoon

Ordinary,
ways to go.
Drop my head,
that's all I know.Empty's all I seem to say.
What's come over me?
Lost that bravery,
locked in without a key.To smile again would feel so good.Caught up in every minute,
bored within it;
Can't I just breathe?
Can't I just breathe?
Can't I just breathe?Scared behind a cheerful smile.
Broken by lust, I'm here for my trial.Where's the strength you stole from me?
Take my dignity.
Go on laugh at me.
Where's your sympathy?To smile again would feel so good.Caught up in every minute,
bored within it,
Can't I just breathe?
Can't I Just breathe?
Can't I just breathe?To smile again, would feel so good...
