Natural

Jasmine Villegas

you're what keeps the stars hung up in the sky, you're what keeps the rivers from running dry you're what makes my heart go and skip a beat when you are inches away from me their ain't no reason, their ain't no rime but still it happens every single time when we say nothing at al 'cause your kiss is so natural. our first touch was like wild fire two hearts dancing on a high wire to young to know what's right, but to much in love to try to fight it you're what keeps the stars hung up in the sky,

their ain't no reason, their ain't no rime
but still it happens every single time when we say nothing at all
'cause your kiss is so natural.
ooh nanana
ooh ahaa ohoo naa naa
cause your kiss is so natural ooh aha cause your kiss is so natural ah.
