

Battle Scars

Bars and Melody

Charlie: You don't know what I've been through
I can teach something that I never knew
Take a seat and take some time
Let me tell you what I've been through
They didn't know we'd come this far
Now they're looking at our Battle Scars
Half the lies you heard ain't true
So let me tell you what I've been through Leondre: I have a dream to be the one
To be the one I want to see up on the screen
And when my son sees me
I want to be the one the he wants to be
And honestly I'm scared
My life is like a pier
People walk all over me
The waves are closing in you see
Relying on fate
But what if I wait maybe a day
But what if I'm late
I miss my ride to take me where I'm meant to go
Or take me home
Why do i have these emotion?
I don't want
Please take them
I'm stuck inside a hole with nowhere to go
And I really hate them
DAMN!
Do I have that much of an impact?
My rhymes did that?
Sometimes I wanna quit ant hit back
But what is there to fear?
Why I'm I even here?
Is there someone out there
Cause there's no one I can hear
Charlie: You don't know what I've been through
I can teach you something that I never knew
Take a seat and take some time
Let me tell you what I've been through
They didn't know we'd come this far
Now they're looking at our Battle Scars
Half the lies you heard ain't true

So let me tell you what I've been throughLeondre:It's hard looking back

But I feel the times right

I ventured to the dark but i wanna see the light

I'll lay my scars in front of you

And show you what they done to me

I wouldn't change what happened

They have made who I am

DAMN!

I want to hit back

I want to hit it out the park

But I don't have a bat

Am I out of my depth?

Am I out of my league?

Tell where exit is cause I wanna to leave

I'm terrified to what's at the middle of this maze

If there is a god

Please take from my this place

What's the mean of existence?

Am i stuck inside the game?

What will happened when I die?

Will my story be replay?

I feel a void inside me that not a thing can fill

Sometimes I wanna cry, die, even want to kill

What's up with these emotion?

I don't wanna feel at allCharlie:You don't know what I've been through
