Flies

The Black Dahlia Murder

Down, start digging down your throat Another string of lies is born You must exemplify perfection Bronzing a broken life of shitYou filthy liar Septic tongue, shit eating grin Slow internal suicide An inch within a trigger's pull again This disease it is your mainstay It wears its wires within meTender tissues scraped away Of secrets etched in nameless graves The smell of vomit hangs in the air tonight Blush, eyeliner, lipstick it's all alright tonightYou filthy liar Septic tongue, shit eating grin Love me with your yellowed smile My flies are hungry for your kissPoison me my darling Graves grow deeper with each passing day This appalling love bask in your putrid revelry Beauty lost in between the lashes of sick drunken eyeLike a fool, you have believed Life of shame

You have fallen completely beneathAnd when the curtains finally part You'll see that everyone is laughing

I am weakness just like you

I'll bury you before you're deadCockroach come crawling home, crawl
Slithering through this world of sculpted shit
So thrust those fingers deep my child
It is your burden and your giftYou filthy liar

Septic tongue, shit eating grin

Slow internal suicide

An inch within a trigger's pull againPoison me my darling Graves grow deeper with each passing day This appalling love bask in your putrid revelry
