

Softworld

Millencolin

One step forward, two steps back
We're the masters of disaster
Pillow pride and shumway lies
Isn't what you expected A solid demon crawls in you
At least that's what they're sayin'
But we don't care, we're just loungin' now
Got to keep our pinegalic post In a softworld, from AMF to Earl Grey
In a softworld, it's softcore
In a softworld from AMF to Earl Grey
In a softworld, yeah Next stop is looking good
'Cause you don't know what it offers
The treasure hunt was meant to be Something ultra clean Munkers say, "It's not okay
'Cause you're lost in what you're doin' "
But this is it when softcore's lit
Won't change a shit In a softworld, from AMF to Earl Grey
In a softworld, it's softcore
In a softworld from AMF to Earl Grey
In a softworld Take time to wonder if it's really worth it
So many broken kinder eggs
So many stolen Lipton bags
Do we really give something back? In a softworld, from AMF to Earl Grey
In a softworld, it's softcore
Don't ask me now
What it's all about In a softworld
In a softworld
In a softworld
