

Love, Sex, Riot

Issues

(feat. Chris "Fronz" Fronzak of Attila)

Swerve!

Put your hands up!

I don't mind getting violent; leave your pride at the door.
Shame is all we've been hiding, so take me down
Throw me into the drywall, you got that bullet I'll bite it.
Pop it off like you own me, and scratch my back when you ride it.

Nobody wants a couple of rights without a couple of wrongs, yeah.
And the fire that you're building up is coming off so strong,
It's like I'm burning inside when you spit my name
The rock, the roll, the pride, the shame.
Let's skip the foreplay and become the teenage waste.
That's what we call love, sex, riot,
So excited,
Love, sex, riot.

[Fronz:]

Alright, let's do this!

Gonna take you to the floor and rip off your clothes.
We can leave the door unlocked, everybody knows!
I'm gonna make your body shake, you can scream all night.
It's a LOVE SEX RIOT
You're invited!

Oh, here I am to get the party popping!
Six rounds of shots and now we're never stopping,
Just close your eyes and let your fantasy play,
Sex, drugs and violence is my anthem, OH!
Taking it up from the top, fuck everybody hard in the middle,
If we get violent, oh, yeah.

We'll call it a riot and then we'll be done with the sex and now everybody's excited.

Nobody wants a couple of rights without a couple of wrongs, yeah,
And the fire that you're building up is coming off so strong,
It's like I'm burning inside when you spit my name
The rock, the roll, the pride, the shame.
Let's skip the foreplay and become the teenage waste.
That's what we call love, sex, riot,

So excited,
Love, sex, riot.

FUCK YOU!

It's riot, Imma' work it over till your tired,
Love it when you're screaming like a siren.
Ready aim ready aim fire, fire.
Riot, imma' set it off Imma' light it,
Heart beat beating like it's dynamite.
Ready aim ready aim fire, fire.

I don't mind getting violent, leave your pride at the door.
Shame is all we've been hiding, so take me down.

[Fronz:]
If we get violent, oh, yeah.
We'll call it a riot and then we'll be done with the sex and now everybody's excited.

It's riot, Imma' work it over till your tired,
Love it when you're screaming like a siren.
Ready aim ready aim fire, fire.
Riot, imma' set it off Imma' light it,
Heart beat beating like it's dynamited.
Ready aim ready aim fire, fire.
Fire, fire..
