Coffin Text

Unwritten Law

There was a time when men would prosper
They saw a sign that would offer them the key
ImmortalityThe desert sand held a place of recourse
Their motivation driven by higher source
A higher sourceThey let them know there's something moreThe writings on the wall tell us the story of it all
It makes no senses show me the key
The coffin textThe disbelievers came to conquer
The secrets lost in a buried desert tomb
They sealed the truthAs evolution at the pharaoh
Silenced the voice that cured all our sorrow
Oh, our sorrowSilenced the voice that let us knowThe writings on the wall tell us the story of it all
It makes no sense show me the key
The coffin textFighting, learning, saving, burning
Never know what is coming next
Lying, stealing, never healing
Safe to say we've all been hexed
It's in the coffin textCoffin text
