Let It Flow

Grover Washington Jr.

Here she comes, walking across the sand
She'll never know how she blows my mind
She's there with the chemicals in my brain
Spinning softly 'round my headI'm gonna give in, I'll never change my mind
I feel it, now, tonight is the night
And why should I try to resist
When it's calling out to me?
Calling out to meShe's blowing my mind
She's always blowing my mind
She's blowing my mind
She's always blowing my mindThe autumn and winter have been and gone
Half the time, I never knew what was wrong
I never noticed I was feeling down
It just went day by dayShe'll never know how she turned it 'round
She'll never know how she blows my mind
It was a long time coming to me
I'm gonna outshine every star
She's gonna break throughShe's blowing my mind
She's always blowing my mind
Look in my eyes
She's always blowing my mindI won't be able to help myself
Falling in love with her
I have all the time in the world
The answer was always thereThen why should I try to resist
When it's calling out to me?
She can take my heart or pay the price
She's the sweetest thing I've ever knownHere she comes, walking across the sand
She'll never know how she blows my mind
She's there with the chemicals in my brain
Spinning softly 'round my headI'm gonna give in, I'll never change my mind
I feel it, now, tonight is the night
And why should I try to resist
When it's calling out to me?
Calling out to meShe's blowing my mind
She's always blowing my mind
She's blowing my mind
She's always blowing my mind
