Undo Love

Rebekka Karijord

You tried to protect it to keep it safe from harm but something intruded and she slipped from your arms You read all her diaries and revealed her betrayal now you want to back all the love you gaveUndo loveYour eyes will be open and you will finally see the calmness outside this storm, this agony You tattooed her face on your left arm to keep her close a proof to the whole world that she once was yours It will heal in time your eyes will be open
You cant undo lovewith your eyes openCan't undo love
