No Longer on the Ball

Eric Donaldson

Why are you saying I'm crazy
Doing what i am doing
Don't you give me no warning
Or save me from ruin

When i tell you that i am okay
You look at me kind of strange Saying I'm not happy
i no longer play the gaaaame
Now you saying that I'm lazy
Dreaming my life away
Now you want to give me advice
Say you trying to enlighten me

When i tell you that i am okay
Watching the shadows on the wall
You say i miss you big time boy
You no longer on the baaall

I'm just sitting here watching the winds go round and rooound
I really love to watch them rolling
No longer riding on the merry go rouuuund
I just have to let you go

Now you're asking questions
Cause you are lost in confusion
When i tell you i ain't got no problem
Only solutions

You look at me and you shake your head
And say i have lost my mind
But why were we adjusting things here and waiting for my turn

I'm just sitting here watching the winds go round and rouuuund
I really love to watch them rolling
No longer riding on the merry go rouuuund
Ohhhhhhhhh

I just have to let you go
I just have to let it go
I just have to let it go
