

Isaac

Madonna

Staring up into the heavens
In this hell that binds your hands
Will you sacrifice your comfort
Make your way in a foreign landWrestle with your darkness
Angels call your name
Can you hear what they are saying
Will you ever be the sameImminilalo Imminilalo
Imminilalo ImminilaloRemember, remember
Never forget
All of your life has all been a test
You will find the gate that's open
Even though your spirit's brokenOpen up my heart
'Cause my lips to speak
Bring the heavens and the stars
Down to earth for meImminilalo Imminilalo
Imminilalo ImminilaloImminilalo Imminilalo
Imminilalo ImminilaloWrestle with your darkness
Angels call your name
Can you hear what they are saying
Will you ever be the sameImminilalo Imminilalo
Imminilalo ImminilaloImminilalo Imminilalo
Imminilalo Imminilalo
