

Wiseman

Dojihatori

said the man
who feel him a fool
for he be the wiseman
for the man
who don't think he's a fool he
control his destiny
but he's too cool for himself
for himself
for himself
oh i need
is something to keep me movin' on
in a world where violence reign
and everybody seems so strange to me
said the man
who feel him a fool
for the man
who dont feel him a fool he
control his destiny
yeah he's too cool for himself
for himself
for himself
oh
to cool
his weapon of destruction
so why dose people suffer and no confusion
you aint winnin' if your losin'
we don't need
said the man
who feel him a fool he
for the man
control his destiny
for himself
for himself

oh
