

No More Honey

Blonde Redhead

Then again
And I think
Than again
We were sorry
and I want to love again
I could feel you but I couldn't say to you
Whatever you do, I won't be sorry No more honey Much more
More than you ever know
In old days we waited by the telephone
You can lose it, lose it for the new you
Whatever you do, I won't be sorry No more honey
