

Turning On

Adam Lambert

and i'm sinking in emancipation but i know that it shows that i'm atching you turning on
turning on
and i'm feeling the liberation till the dawn, till the dawn, and i'm inside you
turning on
turning ontake you down till you get there mistaken journey we're on come on my lover and bite me keep me high until dawnand i'm racing toward exploitation holding on, holding on till we see we're now turning on
turning on
and i'm getting so saturated and i long, and i long to be tasting you
turning on
turning onand i hope that we play now in your immaculate lair do a dare if you fear me and you're craving the dare do you like to be hunted by a snake in the grass and now you're spinning around you'll be delivered at lastyour turn on your turn on
you're turning on
turning onturn on turn on
turn on
you turn on you turn on, yeah
