To You Alone

The Beta Band

If you could look at me from above my feet
I'll have you back in time for me, don't look back for me
There's not a lottery for you in there
Guitar in hand, hold it like a song manYou do not realize the [unverified] that runs from me
Too glad to visualize the [unverified] that runs from meI'm sending out, I'm sadder now
Before the sky will fall on yer, who's calling yer
A black box inside my mind
Records the time we spent togetherYou do not realize the [unverified] that runs from me
Across the universe to you alone
The universe, are you aloneAre you alone
Are you alone
Are you alone
Are you aloneI'm a singin' like a fool
I'm a singin' like a fool
I'm a singin' like a fool
I'm a singin' like a foolShe's like the snow capped trees in my jigsaw
Lose at the seams within fear of your dreams
She's like a fool you meet at the hot store
Hand in the pale and the blacker the veil
The blacker the veilI'm a singin' like a fool
I'm a singin' like a fool
I'm a singin' like a fool
I'm a singin' like a foolI'm sending out, I'm sadder now
Before the sky will fall on yer, who's calling yer
A black box inside my mind
Records the time we spent togetherYou do not realize the [unverified] that runs from me
Across the universe to you aloneAre you alone
Are you alone
Are you alone
Are you alone
Are you alone
Are you aloneI'm a singin' like a fool
I'm a singin' like a fool
I'm a singin' like a fool
I'm a singin' like a fool
I'm a singin' like a foolI'm a singin' like a fool
I'm a singin' like a fool
I'm a singin' like a fool
I'm a singin' like a fool

I'm a singin' like a fool
