

Plastik Hearts

Dirty Pretty Things

You sauntered off and you said how's tricks
You can't mix drugs with your politics
So we took and talked and lost the plot
And after that everything seemed fine

And as it stings and beautiful collide
We watch each others worlds ride under the tide
With intoxicating hands
Cold, cold hearts and well laid plans

Are you listening?
Are you listening
As the days like the waves
Pile up behind you?

La, la, la, la, la
You keep it all, melt my plastic heart
And help me move on, I'm moving on

How do you escape the great pails of pouring rain?
Go to an island or a house in Spain, oh
La, la, la, la, la, la, oh, oh, how we'd kill to go

Erect the gutters and move us in Life or buildings and medicines
We all make the same mistakes
Our pitfalls pull us together

Are you listening?
Are you listening
As the days like the waves
Pile up behind you?

La, la, la, la, la
They keep it all, melt my plastic heart
And help me move on, oh
[Unverified]

La, la, la, la, la
You keep it all, melt my plastic heart

And help me move on La, la, la, la, la, keep it on

Friends for life and acquaintances
Romance and great distances
There's been so many casualties
But I cannot run out over these, oh no
