S.O.S.

Cathy Dennis

Check it!Check it.Oh babyOh.Check it.I was just strolling through my life oh baby
When you came to me like summer's end
I could feel my very moves (?) were changing
Life would never be the same againI can see through your intentions baby
One to one that's the way it's going to be today
I can dream those sweet temptations baby
Love could be in it you know that you'll begin it babyS.O.S. I've been tryin' to do the right thing
But your love's only making it hard for me
S.O.S. I've been tryin' to do the right thing
But your love's only making it hard for meI left my memories of another lover
Long before I knew I felt that way
It was I found my lost illusion
You restored my sense of how to playI can feel the right connection baby
One to one that's the way it's going to be today
It could still lead to affection baby
Love could be in it you know that you'll begin it babyS.O.S. I've been tryin' to do the right thing
But your love's only making it hard for me
S.O.S. I've been tryin' to do the right thing
But your love's only making it hard for meYou make it hard for meS.O.S. I've been tryin' to do the right thing
But your love's only making it hard for meYour lovin' babyS.O.S. I've been tryin' to do the right thing
But your love's only making it hard for meFor meYour lovin'Your lovin'Ohhh.Your lovin'You know you make it hard for meS.O.S. I've been tryin' to do the right thing
But your love's only making it hard for me

But your love's only making it hard for meYou kn you make it hard for meS.O.S. (Oh yeah) I've been tryin' to do the right thing
But your love's only making it hard for meS.O.S. I've been tryin' to do the right thing
