Our Moon

Kevin Morby

Sing to me in the morning
Keep me warm from the storm outside
And if I'm shaking in the morning
I'm on the run from the darkness of my mind
To be the one to know you far and wide
To have had our fun, don't let those blue flowers dieIf you don't see me in the evening
Look at our moon up in its night
If your room feels empty, well come the evening
Open up the door and let in its light
And though our moon is well on your side
Do you hold it too, do you dance with its light
And you best not cry now, wipe those tears from your eyes
Here comes a new day with its sun, oh, its rise
Sing to me in the morning
Keep me warm from the storm outside
