

Hometowns

Band Of Skulls

In hometowns, suburban and transient
Romances, just like yours, are bound again,
To all you lovers, gather around you,
To see what you have become
No acting, while you're here, a lonely road
It's just kids having, more kids for
Fear of being alone
To all you lovers, gather around you,
To see what you have become
I was looking for the one

But I guess you'll do
No acting, while you're here, a lonely road
It's just kids having, more kids for
Fear of being alone
To all you lovers, gather around you,
To see what you have become
I was looking for the one
But I guess you'll do
In hometowns, suburban and transient
Romances, just like yours happen again.
