

In Safe Hands

Badly Drawn Boy

I'll leave you now,
In safe hands,
Cool your soul,
It's love still stands,
But failing that,
Just cool down,
Wouldn't you love to make it,
Is this real or am I just imagining?
With wings take flight,
The rose of why,
And with that rose,
The case is closed,
But I need you now,

To help me somehow,
Well I'm scared to face it,
This final kiss,
But I know you'll remember it,
You gave your best to me,
Allow yourself to be free,
It raids your memory,
Still I'm sorry for failing,
A time for change,
Well I need you now,
To help me out,
Well I'm scared to face this,
A final kiss,
But I know you'll remember it.
