Right Here, Right Now

Red Rocks Worship

Lord You have our attention
Every eye is fixed on You
Burn away every distraction
So You can moveWe won't hesitate, to bring You praise
Open up the gates, of heavenRight here right now, we seek You
Right here right now, we trust You
Your presence falling down, our worship pouring out
Right here, right nowLord You've won all our affection
We are leaning into You
Tear the walls down between us
So you can move
This is where healing starts
This is where lives are changed
Spirit come and break through, break through
You have made a way
There is where we belong
Here in Your full embrace
Spirit come and break through, break through
You have made a way
Spirit come and break through, break through
You have made a wayRight here right now, we seek You
Right here right now, we trust You
Your presence falling down, our worship pouring out
Right here, right now, right here, right nowRight here right now, we seek You
Right here right now, we trust You
Your presence falling down, our worship pouring out
Right here, right now, Oooh
Right here right now, we seek You
Right here right now, we trust You
Your presence falling down, our worship pouring out
