

Mr. Beautiful

Cheyenne Kimball

I look at all the pictures and I have to wonder why
You were always laughing and I'm about to cry
It's hard to see the mirror when you're blinded by the sun
And I can't say I'm sorry, I thought you were the one
I gotta keep leaving, if I'm gonna get over you
I gotta keep moving, I've done all that I can do
I gotta believe in, we both know the truth
Goodbye, Mr. Beautiful, you're someone I never knew
I think of all the moments when I was so alone
And you were there right next to me when nobody was home
And I'm defined as a prisoner inside your selfish world
There wasn't enough room for me and all your other girls
I gotta keep leaving, if I'm gonna get over you
I gotta keep moving, I've done all that I can do
I gotta believe in and we both know the truth
Goodbye, Mr. Beautiful, you're someone I never knew
And don't tell me you love me, you don't know what love is anyway
And I'm saying it's over and I wanna do what I say
And I gave you a million chances to make it right
Make it right, yeah, make it right, you're never gonna make it right
So I gotta keep leaving, if I'm gonna get over you
I gotta keep moving, I've done all that I can do
I gotta believe in and we both know the truth
Goodbye, Mr. Beautiful, you're someone I never knew
I gotta keep leaving, if I'm gonna get over you
I gotta keep moving, I've done all that I can do
I gotta believe in and we both know the truth
Goodbye, Mr. Beautiful, you're someone I never knew

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>