Appetizer

Aerial East

Sometimes he says yes,
Sometimes he says come over,
Sometimes he says no,
Sometimes he says no

I know he's just a stone in the water,
I'm just trying to get back,
He's an appetizer

Sometimes he says yes,
Sometimes he says come over,
Sometimes he says no,
Sometimes he says no

I know he's young at heart
Sunny sky with muddy sky
Spends his nights standing by Getting other women drunk

Sometimes he says yes,
Sometimes he says come over,
Sometimes he says no,
Sometimes he says no

When he's about to leave,
He drops his eyes and speaks
About the other times
And promises he'll write

But it's always me
Who says I wanna see

Sometimes he responds
With wonder of your love

Sometimes he says yes,
Sometimes he says come over,
Sometimes he says no,
Sometimes he says no

I'm a fool every time,
I think that I'm ok then
I can't get him off my mind

Sometimes he says yes,
Sometimes he says come over,
Doesn't matter cus I know he's just
An appetizer
