

In This Life

Chantal Kreviazuk

Let me show you what I'm made of
Good intentions are not enough
To get me through today and this life
You're in the basement watching the TV
I'm on the second floor watching the ceiling
We'll sleep underneath the same big sky at night
And dream the same dream we can fly And you can run from me
And you can hide from me
But I am right besides you
In this life Let me tell you who you really are You're my comfort
You're not a superstar
Life can reach up and bring you back down
Onto the ground
And give you everything you dream about And you can run from me
And you can hide from me
But I am right besides you
In this life I'll give you all the things that I'd never get
Give you all I have and have no regrets
Take you to the places that I've never been Forgive you all the things that you can't forget
Take away the pain with my healing hand
Wash away your sins and set your spirit free You can run from me
And you can hide from me
But I am right besides you
In this life And you can run from me
And you can hide from me
I am right besides you
In this life Let me show you what I'm made of
