Grace

Belial's Bride

Are not all the members of the body needed to make it one whole? Yet you sever the grace of God to spite yourself! Calling unclean what I have called clean as you devour your own shit! Keepers of the estate become abusive and drunk as they beat their fellow servants!

A good shepherd wards off the thief and fights off the ravenous wolves. Forsaking the fold when one becomes lost to rejoice with the angels of heaven. Who will lay down their life to restore what is righteous in the eyes of God? Who is spiritual among you who can gently bring to health the afflicted with love?

The elite will now take a bride as a tithe to neglect the laws of grace. Does the love of God exempt you from the work of righteousness? Will you make a holy union with what I have called immorality? Can the bridegroom rejoice in his garden as you defile it with perversity?!
Keep sinning so that grace may increase. Do evil, so good can result: This is fallacious!
Eat and drink for tomorrow we die, sinning unto your death: Define sacrilege!
Bad company corrupts good character;, light with darkness: Holy prostitution!
Dying daily, forgiveness and grace; your own crucifixion!

We must seek first the kingdom of God and its righteousness. The treasure we seek will not be obtained in this world: True wealth can only come from within.

Make merchandise of the gospel as you fatten yourself with the pennies of the afflicted. Garment yourselves with clothes of kings; equating righteousness with prosperity. Whitewashed tombs; vessels of death; full of dead mans bones. You worshiped sacrifices; now you worship grace: neglecting obedience and justice!

I can't tolerate this painful image locked inside of my head of you. My own bride has lifted her heal against me: neglecting the embrace of a love that's true!
I taste betrayal on your lips....
Why did you kiss me with your poisoned kiss?
When did love finally lose it's patience? Where did love learn to be so unkind? Love and grace produces true repentance; enduring the fire that comes from the test of time.
Love your neighbor as yourself....
Love would not damn someone to hell.

Love is patient, love is kind: Love never fails! Love is not envious, or full off pride: Love never fails! Love's not dishonoring, nor self seeking: Love never fails! It's not easily angered, nor unforgiving: Love never fails!

The wicked will not inherit the kingdom of God. You have deluded yourselves with false teachings of grace and love: All who are sexually immoral, gossipers, slanderers, lairs and thieves; drunkards and all who defraud: They will not inherit the kingdom of God.
Like a ruby in the snout of a pig; is the bride who lacks discretion. Holy ambassadors who misrepresent the grace of God. Judging and condemning everyone when you are guilty of the same sin. Casting off the armor of light as you continue in your deeds of darkness! (Selah)

Pray to the lord of the harvest so that there will be workers of the field. The signs that follow who believe are inconsistent with the master's will. They will cast out demons, heal the sick, and speak with new tongues.
Baring witness to the gospel of peace; walking in perfect love.
Putting aside all earthly cares: The just will live by faith alone. Clothing themselves with the armor of God; destroying the works of the evil one. They will wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities of this world. Demolishing every stronghold and argument that stands against the knowledge of God.
Oxymoronic disciples nullify their salt to satisfy their own needs. Not standing strong in the most holy faith as they give way to the enemy. Refusing to give sound doctrine in every season with careful instruction. Preaching grace without obedience for the whole worlds destruction.

Keep sinning so that grace may increase. Do evil so good can result: This is fallacious!
Eat and drink for tomorrow we die, sinning unto your death: Define sacrilege!
Bad company corrupts good character, light with darkness: Holy prostitution!
Dying daily, forgiveness and grace; your own crucifixion!

We must seek first the kingdom of God and its righteousness. The treasure we seek will not be obtained in this world: True wealth can only come from within.

Make merchandise of the gospel as you fatten yourself with the pennies of the afflicted. Garment yourselves with clothes of kings; equating righteousness with prosperity. Whitewashed tombs; vessels of death; full of dead mans bones. You worshiped sacrifices; now you worship grace: neglecting obedience and justice!

I have chosen to crush your stronghold: This covenant of twisted reality. You imprisoned yourself with demonic manipulation: your witchcraft; your hypocrisy.
I taste betrayal on your lips....
Why have you kissed me with your poisoned kiss?
Itching ears to be hypnotized for their own destruction: Teachings that condone iniquity. Raped by your own demonic suicide: they hunger for the words for spiritual demise.
Love your neighbor as yourself....
Love would not fuck someone to hell.

Love is not evil, love is truth: Love never fails!
Love protects, love always trust: Love never fails!
Love always hopes, love forever endures: Love never fails! Love never fails! Love never fails! Love never fails!
