Numbers

The Suicide Machines

Typewriters bang
Everyday it is the same fact is
These people are going insane
They got sad eyes, no reply
They've been doing this shit all day
And they don't know whyThey don't know the way
That's probably why they're going insane
They can't think with all those fuckingNumbers
There's too much on the line for numbers
There's too much emphasis on numbers
There's too much on the line for numbers
There's too much emphasis on, goMachine goes ping, telephone rings
Yeah, all his life
He's been doing the same thing
Got sad eyes, no reply
I've been doing this shit all day
And I don't know whyThey don't know the way
That's probably why they're going insane
They can't think with all those fuckingNumbers
There's too much on the line for numbers
There's too much emphasis on numbers
There's too much on the line for numbers
There's too much emphasis on, go, stop
