Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

And it's you that's on my computer screen
Cause it's you that's on my mind
And it's you that's on my computer screen
Cause it's you that's on my mind
Cause it's you that's on my mind The world is yours as soon as you log on
I'm long gone like the dro that's blown in the wind, friend
Pretend that this life is but a dream then reality syncs in
The fantasy begins and it never ends
We like to role play, throw on some Coldplay
Go get some drugs and alcohol, fuck our whole day
Now we're trapped in the matrix
While Big Brother out here making movies, nigga, don't say shit And it's you that's on my computer screen
Cause it's you that's on my mind
And it's you that's on my computer screen
Cause it's you that's on my mind
Cause it's you that's on my mind The information age (age)
The age of information, but we're still a slave
So let me behave like a coon, bring the goons, go out and sell dope
That's what they shoving down our throat so I choke
And regurgitate truest lyrics I ever wrote, folk
My crew is loc'd out without the bandannas
Yet we keep it cracking like a egg yolk, nigga, that's Atlanta
By way of West Savannah And it's you that's on my computer screen
Cause it's you that's on my mind
And it's you that's on my computer screen
Cause it's you that's on my mind
Cause it's you that's on my mind As I scroll through the centerfolds
Wishing that the screen was three-dimensional
I know it doesn't seem too conventional
But it'll do untill I get you in the physical And it's you that's on my computer screen
Cause it's you that's on my mind
And it's you that's on my computer screen

Cause it's you that's on my mind
Cause it's you that's on my mindThe flash memory that I'll hold is all I know of time
What was waiting all along is all I have to realize
I've got the dial tone
The glowing screen, it means we're not aloneAnd it's you that's on my computer screen
Cause it's you that's on my mind
And it's you that's on my computer screen
Cause it's you that's on my mind
Cause it's you that's on my mind
