Hot One

Shudder To Think

Well, you're the grand wild, have you noticed
When you walk in all the fairy boys are pale and nervous
Well, my starship doesn't want me and neither does his world
I'm glad, I caught you on my view screenSailor, you're the grand Wilde, come and court me
'Cause this wooing is what I'm wanting
When my spacesuit comes to warm me and hold me like a God
I am the captain of the gravity, Maxwell, everywhere I see your facesHot One, from a starship over Venus to the Sun
But, it's a crime, you're mistaken, a momentary seizure of love
Oh, loveWell, you're the grand wild, but darling, I'm a mess
I've got to humanize my wrinkled form but the boys are not impressed
When my spaceship comes to orbit just hold me like a girl
I'll be the captain of the gravity, Maxwell
I see your faces in the strangest placesHot One yeah, from a starship over Venus to the Sun
But, it's a crime, you're mistaken, momentary seizure of love
Oh, loveHot One yeah, from a starship over Venus to the Sun
But, it's a drag, you're so mean, destroying my belief in, in love
Oh, love
