Seed

Before the Dawn

[music: Tuomas Saukkonen, words:Tuomas Saukkonen/Panu Willman]lies, it all comes down on the guilty ones hides, their faceless looks it has begun dark, some dangerously oblivious mark, was in the eyes that grave to crushwas there a reason for this all a brief moment in the past when all went wrong a memory to reveal one by one all the failures we have donein you in me breeded the seed with all these fears in you in me breeded the seed behind these tears
