Color

Carly Pearce

I give up, I surrender
And be nice, 'cause this heart's a little tender
You were right, I was wrong, boy
Yes, I know that you knew it all along, boy
Tried to tell me we belonged together, I knew better, I was like "no"
I admit it, I'm a wild child looking for a hand to holdYou be the lines, I'll be the color
Just like the day and night need each other
Life ain't as great without the other
You be the lines, I'll be the color, oh
I'll be the color, oh
Well, you're the rock, you're the steady
You need someone to push you in before you're ready
Well, I'm the rush, I'm the crazy
But I'll be circling the moon without you, babyYou be the lines, I'll be the color
Just like the day and night need each other
Life ain't as great without the other
You be the lines, I'll be the color, oh
I'll be the color, ohOh, yeah...
Nothing feels like you, boy
I don't know how you knew, boyYou tried to tell me we belonged together, I was like "no"
I admit it, I'm a wild child looking for a hand to hold
You be the lines, I'll be the color
Just like the day and night need each other
Life ain't as great without the other
You be the lines, I'll be the color, oh
I'll be the color, oh, yeahAnd life ain't as good without the other
So you be the lines, I'll be the color, oh
I'll be the color, oh
