Tracy

Ironik

Look Tracy, how you doing? I ain't seen you for years
Are you married yet? Any kids? Tell me how it;s going
I cried so much when I heard you was going
And my eyes hurt alot when I heard you was going
While you reading this grab a tissue and smile
And look at our pictures from school and just smile
You had the cutest smile
I won't lie, I pictured you walking down the aisle
We could have been so happy together
I wonder if your parents didnt want us together?
Beautiful, silly at times but real clever
I won't be surprised if I dont see you, ever
But that is the reason I wrote this letter
And if you write back I'd feel ten times better
I know good things come to an end
But sometimes its like the wrong things end.Chorus:
Oh Tracy, when im sad i think back
I get the sweetest memories running through my head, so write back
Oh baby when i see us together, our love will never leave
I wanna feel it forever so baby come with me
Lets run away ay ay ay ay ay [x4]I didn't get a chance to tell you how i felt
Only my mum knew how i really felt
My heart was crushed and broke into two
I wish i could turn back time just for you
Its funny how i see all these girls and dont care
They know to do music for me, I dont care
Girls like you come rare, I mean it
And you dont even have to show it 'cause I believe it
I made a promise to you and didn't get to keep it
Best friends forever, remember, forever.
I need you forever, I'll keep you forever
But now it's never and I feel so down
My love's so strong, I need yours now
Without you I feel like I'm just down
Could have travelled the world together up and down
I love you babe, so tell me how you feel right about nowChorus:
Oh Tracy, when I'm sad I think back
I get the sweetest memories running through my head, so write back
Oh baby when I see us together, our love will never leave

I wanna feel it forever so baby come with me
Lets run away ay ay ay ay ay [x4]Oh Tracy, when I'm sad I think back
I get the sweetest memories running through my head, so write back
Oh baby when I see us together, our love will never leave
I wanna feel it forever so baby come with me.
