

Fire Burns

Nicki Minaj

You should've left
The other day
You let me beg
For you to stay
This is a sickening joke
That you play with my emotions
And so I pray you burn in hell
And you never find the ocean
(Chorus) I hope your fire
Fire burns baby
I hope your fire
Fire burns baby
I hope you lay down in your sleep
And you choke on every lie you told
And when youre reaching out for me
Youll see you reap everything you sew (/chorus)
You piece of shit
You broke me down
Thought you said you
Would hold me down
But I could see it your eyes that youre blinded by them flashing lights
And yous a stupid mother fucker for letting this thing pass you by
I hope your fire
Fire burns baby
I hope your fire
Fire burns baby
I hope you lay down in your sleep
And you choke on every lie you told
And when youre reaching out for me
Youll see you reap everything you sew
