Kate Voegele

Broken carnival ride
That never stops
Circus top swallows the night
I've been here many times
Thanks to you
I see that look on your face
The one that's sayin trust me babe,
I'm gonna change
Please forgive my mistakes and just when I'm starting to
There you go lettin' me down again
Shut me out again
Yeah, yeah
There you go, breakin' my heart again
Rip me apart again, I know that you can
And I hate it, 'cause I take it
And I'm not okay but I fake it
Oh, Oh
There you go, cuttin' me down again
Spin me around again
On this old carousel
Oh
A vicious cycle of lies
Why am I in the least bit surprised
It's exactly the type of thing you do
Yeah, Yeah
You're so predictable now, now
I let you chew me up just to spit me out
And I don't know how After all you've put me through
There you go, lettin' me down again
Shut me out again
Yeah, Yeah
There you go breakin' my heart again
Rip me apart again, I know that you can
And I hate it 'cause I take it
And I'm not okay but I fake it
Oh, Oh
There you go cuttin' me down again
Spin me around again
On this old carousel
You know you spin me around
Round merry-go-round

You're spitting me out
And tearing me down
Love love, I've had enough
You're messing me up
Put my feet on the ground
'Cause I'm getting out of...There you go lettin' me down again
Shut me out again
Yeah, Yeah
and I hate it 'cause I take it
Oh, Oh
Spin me around again
