

Breaking My Fall

Jeremy Camp

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

So easily I fall, so easily You reach Your hand out
Quickly will I drown, in all the pools of all my reason
So easily will I fear, so easily will Your peace surpass me
Quickly will I trust, in anything I think is worthy How many a times You make the waves calm down
So I won't be afraid now 'Cause I saw You breaking my, breaking my fall
What am I suppose to do yeah, yeah, yeah
'Cause I saw You breaking my, breaking my fall
What am I suppose to do, what am I suppose to do How precious are Your thoughts
And many a time You think about me
Faithful are your ways I always feel you grace abounding
Quickly will I call, quickly will you answer my cry
Carefully will you bring everything I need in my life How many a times You make the waves calm down
So I won't be afraid now 'Cause I saw You breaking my, breaking my fall
What am I suppose to do yeah, yeah, yeah
'Cause I saw You breaking my, breaking my fall
What am I suppose to do, what am I suppose to do What am I suppose to do
This narrow road I'm walking
This world will try to draw
Your word will help me fight it
With you I'll face it all yeah 'Cause I saw You breaking my, breaking my fall
What am I suppose to do yeah, yeah, yeah
'Cause I saw You breaking my, breaking my fall
What am I suppose to do 'Cause I saw You breaking my fall, well breaking my fall
Well Lord I saw You
'Cause I saw You breaking my, breaking my fall
What am I suppose to do
