Rain and the Radio

Randy Rogers Band

Storms rollin' in
Power lines are down
They don't know when
It's gonna come back on
I hope it takes all night longPour a glass of wine
Chase it with a kiss
Come a little closer
As long as we're stuck like this
TonightWho needs the lights
Girl were doin' just fine
Stumblin' in the shadows
Rollin' in the candle glow
We ain't got nowhere to go
Two lovers on a mission
Dancin' to the rhythm of
The rain and the radioSomethin' tells me
It won't be long
But let's keep them off
Even if they cut back on
TonightWho needs the lights
Girl were doin' just fine
Stumblin' in the shadows
Rollin' in the candle glow
We ain't got nowhere to go
Two lovers on a mission
Dancin' to the rhythm of
The rain and the radioNow baby this house is haunted
With a burning desire
And we'll wake up tomorrow mornin'
Like ashes from the fireWho needs the lights
Girl were doin' just fine
Stumblin' in the shadows
Rollin' in the candle glow
We ain't got nowhere to go
Two lovers on a mission
Dancin' to the rhythm of
The rain and the radio
The rain and the radio
