Save You Tonight

Cassandra Kubinski

You say, you've lost your faith there's nothing more to live for I reach out to touch your face cause roses bloom among thorns

I just met you
I cant let you drown in a heart so sore

You cry and I wanna save you tonight touch you, love you turn your darkness to light

You scream and punch the air and grab at those that you miss your dark eyes flash with despair you won't be saved by my kiss

i just met you
and i cant let you drown in a heart like this, yeah

touch you, love you

i wanna save you, save you, save you tonight but i'm a little bit scared see, i'm a bit unprepared what you want me to do? (what do you want me..) yeah thorns help you bleed, help me to be what you need see, i'm a little lost too. (oh, lost too) mm, you cry and i wanna save you, tonight touch you, love you

you cry and i, i wanna make sure see, i wanna make sure that you cry never again

never again
never again
(i wanna save you tonight) save you tonight (i wanna save you tonight)
(i wanna save you tonight)
