(In Touch with) Your Feminine Side

Alice Cooper

You got a taste on your face
You got some scare in your hair
You got some rock in your walk
And some hips in your slipsStop running, stop hiding
Just wanna get in touch with your feminine sideYou look so cool, you look so sweet
Come on, baby, come on over, baby
It's your world but it's my street
Come on, baby, come on over, babyYou got stars on your scars
You got surprise in your eyes
You put some bite in the night
You got some sin on your skinStop running, stop hiding
Just wanna get in touch with your feminine sideYou look so cool, you look so sweet
Come on, baby, come on over, baby
It's your world but it's my street
Come on, baby, come on over, babyStop running, stop hiding
Just wanna get in touch with your feminine touch
With your feminine sideYou look so cool, you look so sweet
Come on, baby, come on over, baby, inside
It's your world but it's my street
Come on, baby, come on over, baby, insideYou look so cool, you look so sweet
Come on, baby, come on over, baby, inside
It's your world but it's my street
Come on, baby, come on over, baby, inside
