

Trick On me

Lexy & K. Paul

Hey, you child
Do you remember me, ten years ago?
I put a spell on your, your habits!

You played a
You played a
You played a
You played a
You played a
You played a
You played a
You played a
You played a
You played a
You played a
You played a
You played a
You played a
You played a trick on me

Trick on me
You played a trick (trick)

You played a trick on me and then I cried
You put a spell on me, I have to hide
But the tables turn, well it's about time
You gave your trick, now here is mine!

You played a trick on me
Trick on me

You played a trick on me and then I cried.
You put a spell on me I have to hide
But the tables turn, well it's about time
You gave your trick, now here is mine!

You played a trick on me
You played a trick
Trick on me
Trick on me

You played a trick on me and then I cried.
You put a spell on me, I have to hide

But the tables turn, now it's about time
You gave your trick, now here is mine!

You played a trick on me and then I cried.
(You) put a spell on me, I have to hide
But the tables turn, well it's about time
You gave your trick, now here is mine!

Trick on me
You played a trick

You played a trick on me and then I cried.
You put a spell on me, I have to hide
But the tables turn, now it's about time
You gave your trick, now here is mine!

You played a trick!
